

Big Island Music and Adventure Retreat

With Anne Weiss

April 7-14, 2012

A music camp for adults (or youth with adult supervision) on the Big Island, at Kalani Oceanside Retreat Village in Pahoehoe, Hawaii! Kalani Info: <http://kalani.com/>

General Program:

~ Singing Classes and Vocal Instruction using songs from around the world~

~ Folk and Blues Guitar ~ Ukulele ~ Songwriting ~ Local Arts and Culture~ Volcano, Snorkeling, Hike and Beach Excursions ~ Natural Warm Springs ~ Jam-on-the-Beach, more!

About the Teacher:

Anne Weiss has been performing and teaching internationally for over 25 years. Known for her enormous bluesy voice, great musicianship, warmth, and community building, she has appeared with everyone from Ani DiFranco to Taj Mahal and has taught music workshops from Hawaii to Vermont. Other teachers for 2012 TBA.

"What could be better than a vacation filled with music, great people, the beauty of a Hawaiian island, and customized musical instruction provided by talented, supportive, encouraging teachers! It was a musical playground for grownups!" Jan O.

Workshop Price: $1300 (includes all classes, activities, gorgeous lodging, pool, sauna, and hot tub and includes organic meals(!) Plane ticket separate). Camping and tree house options are also available depending on your budget. Local residents (staying off site :) $80/day.

Family and friends are welcome too—as workshop participants or as co-vacationers!

Reserve Your Spot in the Workshop!

Our fantastic camp coordinator this year is Kate Morrell. She'll coordinate housing, transportation, and get back to you with answers to all your questions, including "what is the meaning of life" and "how many ukulele players can fit in a microbus" etc.

Her info: 503-754-0705 or morrell.kate6@gmail.com

Even more info: www.anneweiss.com

